Course Description

This Three (3) Day course focuses on foot work congruent to both the combative and shooting world, along with principals allowing the operator to understand and recognize "true" violence within their opponent, and respond effectively while creating time/distance/opportunity to retain or employ their firearm.

Training is not based on muscle science and mere aggression, but on 'real intelligence' which can be utilized by officers of smaller stature.

Designed for officers in Patrol, SWAT team members, Undercover Agents, and Dignitary Personnel. A must for both DT and Firearms Instructors.

Course Topics:

- Creating a combat mindset
- Understanding violence
- Disruptions/ Destructions/ Distance/ and Containment Combative Answers
- Weapon Retention
- Surviving Edged Weapons
- Drawing the handgun
- Transition Drills
